WILLIMANTIC ROYCE PLACE

Purchased by Dr. C. E. Simonds from

The Henry F. Royce place, at the corner of Spring and Church streets, has been bargained for by Dr. C. E. Simonds, and it is expected that the deeds transferring the property will be passed some time this week. Dr. Simonds purchased the property from florace Eaton, who has owned the place for some time. The money consideration is not mentioned.

Dr. Simonds expects to move from his present residence in the Turner block, on Church street, to the Royce house as soon as possible after the transfer is made. The place is finely located, and in addition to a roomy and well built dwelling, there is a fair barn and tidy grounds surrounding the residence. Real estate fanciers consider that the doctor has acquired a fine piece of property.
